

Dear All,

St. Xavier's College, XRCVC-Viviana extension is happy to announce an Offline Training on the theme “Talkback with External Keyboard.”

Many of my visually impaired friends cannot afford personal laptop or desktop to improve their learning and other skills, most of them have Android phones and it can also be used as laptop. Some users struggle in navigating and writing by touch typing, so tasks become time-consuming. Thankfully, tools like external keyboards that work with phone, it helps to improve writing efficiency and navigating across various accessible applications.

In this offline training, we will learn hands-on experience with Talkback about navigating, writing, etc with computer keyboard.

Eligibility and Criteria:

- Participants should have good knowledge of Android phone gestures with talk back, basic of touch typing, and computer keyboard.
- Persons with print disabilities such as blind and low vision. A participant should be a screen reader user.

Hurry up; limited seats are available for the session. Those interested should kindly register by using the link appended below. <https://forms.gle/gHrv9Wms5DTmB2396>
