

Dear Friends,

XRCVC is happy to announce a Webinar on “Smart Assistant - Google Home”

Meet Google Home, a hands-free voice-activated speaker powered by the Google Assistant.

This webinar provides an inside look into Google Home Smart Assistant. The session will be useful for those who own the device and also to those who wish to learn about this technology.

An expert user of this smart device will demonstrate the best and smartest way to use it.

Those interested in joining this online session should kindly register by using the link appended below. Limited seats are available. Registration closes at 4 pm on Thursday 28th May 2020.
