Dear All,

St. Xavier's College, XRCVC -Viviana extension is happy to announce an online workshop on the theme "Microsoft Copilot with screen reader" under its Tech Roshni series – A step at bridging the digital divide for blind and low vision persons.

Microsoft Copilot, an AI assistant, enhances productivity and accessibility for users, especially benefiting blind users. It seamlessly integrates with screen readers and voice command tools, providing auditory feedback for tasks.

Copilot assists in navigating applications, improving accessibility by reading out content, and aiding in drafting emails and documents through voice transcription. Overall, Copilot empowers blind users by making technology more accessible and user-friendly.

In the upcoming workshop, we will study this exclusive tool with popular screen readers.

Eligibility: participants should have a good knowledge of screen reader, cursor movements, Keyboard, basics of Windows, and internet browsing.

Limited seats are available for the session. Those interested should kindly register by using the link appended below.
