

Dear All,

St. Xavier's College, XRCVC - Lake Shore Extension is happy to announce an online workshop on the theme "Using Google NotebookLM with NVDA" under its Tech Roshni series – A step at bridging the digital divide for blind and low vision persons.

- Do you often require to work on multiple resources while doing the research work?
- Are you facing challenges while navigating advanced AI research tools with your screen reader?
- Do you want to leverage Google NotebookLM for organizing notes, summarizing documents, and generating audio overviews, but you aren't sure how to do it efficiently with NVDA?

We have the perfect solution for you! XRCVC is happy to conduct an online workshop on "Using Google NotebookLM with NVDA."

Google NotebookLM is a powerful, AI-driven note-taking and research assistant that helps users interact with their documents, ask questions, and synthesize information seamlessly. With NVDA, blind and low vision users can navigate its interface, manage sources, and access its powerful features independently. This workshop will provide participants with an introduction to NotebookLM and demonstrate step-by-step how to use it effectively with NVDA for uploading documents, generating summaries, and interacting with the AI.

Interested participants should register using the link below on or before Thursday, 16 July 2026 by 11:59 PM.
